The Brockenspectre

The outcome of such a literary apprenticeship was the fragmentation of whatever narrative pattern might tempt him, the conveying of topics and emotions by shards of reality rather than by description or narration, a taste in daring wordplay.

The Autobiography of Benjamin Franklin - Golden Edition - [Puffin Classics] - (ANNOTATED)

I am glad to be reminded of what I had already intended to do - to mention Rosalind Beardshaw every time I mention 'The Fairiest Fairy' - because the illustrations for a picture book are not 'add ons' they are essential, certainly equal and maybe more important - like a chair needs a seat and legs. I know this especially now that my mom lives with me because she never truly saved for retirement.
